Secy GD 26/3

Submitted with the confidential Collection No. 58/41 as directed. The two buildings belong to private individuals. They are made use of at present for housing the A.G's office. The parties concerned might have entered into an agreement direct with the Residency for handing their buildings for the purpose. There was No Correspondence between the Govt of Mysore & the Residency in this respect.

From the Collection placed below, it is seen that the Residency wanted these buildings, prior to their being occupied by the A.G's office, for the use of the Military Depts. While the Hon. Vice Chancellor, Univ. of "Jagan Bhavan" was willing to place his building at the disposal of the Military Authorities, under certain conditions, Mr. Nagaraja Rao [illegible] owner of Purna Prasad" was not anxious to do it. The Correspondence was merely filed, after ~~being~~ joined by the Dewan. The matter was not pursued further.

A reply may be sent that his "fair" have no objection & that it is his intention that the Mukhtiar authorities will settle the case with the owners of the buildings in question

Dear Mr. Mehkri,

As you are no doubt aware, the Military authorities are thinking of engaging Purnaprasad and Patanbhavan when the Accountant-General's Office is moved back from Bangalore. It is proposed to engage for the new Chief Justice Mr. R.P. Mallappa's house in High Ground which is at present leased to the Accountant-General's Office or to a member of his staff. If the Military authorities are thinking of taking up this house also, you may kindly inform them that it will not be available. I shall be glad if you will also kindly ascertain and let me know when the Accountant-General's Office will be shifted from Bangalore.

Yours sincerely,
